- I have experience mentoring/training all junior designers, setting and maintaining design standards and advocating for best practices in accessibility and inclusivity.
- My experience in working with agile, cross-functional teams has allowed me to balance user needs with business requirements effectively by understanding the importance of flexibility and collaboration.
- By maintaining open communication, I help ensure that the design vision is implemented accurately while meeting the strategic aims of the organisation.
- My ability to lead design discussions and navigate complex projects has been honed through years of experience, where I led the prototyping of complex ideas and distilled them into clear, actionable design solutions.
